HAINS ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE AND
STORIES AFLOAT

New York, Aug. 21.—Captain Hains is on the verge of a physical and mental collapse and refuses to let his doctor attend him. He mutters constantly: "He robbed me of my wife; I loved her." Thomson Hains is unmoved and refuses to talk. He accepts imprisonment stoically.

The wildest stories are afloat regarding Ann's and Mrs. Hains, which probably will never be settled until the trial.

Solicitor Campbell's Position.

Apparent injustice was done City Solicitor Campbell by an editorial in The Sun, based on an interview in another paper, in which it was made to appear that Mr. Campbell would recommend to the ordinance committee of the general council that the Standard Oil company should be permitted to remain at Tenth and Monroe streets, provided a fire-proof building be erected. Mr. Campbell will not recommend any such thing; but the reports he has received from other cities, do not indicate that the Standard Oil company is universally compelled to remove its tanks from the city limits. Mr. Campbell will not recommend any line of action to the ordinance committee, but simply will submit his report. He will also mention the increased insurance rate in the vicinity of the Standard's tanks. He said he has never expressed the personal opinion that the Standard Oil company should be allowed to remain where it is.

Suffers From Stinking Spell.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 21.—Donald Mitchell, "The Marvel," the novelist, lies critically ill at his home, Edgewood, in Westfield. He was attacked with a sinking spell and was regarded in so dangerous a condition that all his relatives were summoned, including his brother Alfred Mitchell of New London, his daughter, Mrs. Edward H. Yerson, of Chicago, and his son, Walter Mitchell, of New York City. His physician, Dr. Thomas Russell, said that his symptoms were not so acute as last night, but his patient was still seriously ill. The venerable author is 85 years old and fear is felt that the present attack is the beginning of the breaking down of his system.

KIND STRANGER HANDED MARKED MONEY TO WILSON

That is How He Came Into Possession of Cash Paid
For Whisky.

Man Who Bought it Mistook
Wilson For Seller.

JUDGE CROSS ACQUITS HIM

After consulting authorities, Police Judge D. A. Cross dismissed the case against Frank Wilson, a young tin smith charged with selling liquor without a license, although Sam Herbst identified Wilson as the man who sold a quart bottle of whisky, and a marked coin given Herbst by Patroonman Rousch and paid by him for the whisky was found in Wilson's possession. Wilson said he was with two unknown men, who sold the whisky and gave him the money. The unknown bootleggers were not present, but Judge Cross accepted Wilson's story against the statement of Herbst, backed by Patroonman Rousch, who laid the trap with the marked coin.

Wilson, with two men, was at the Union station Sunday night. Wilson, according to the evidence of the pipe sniffer, approached several bystanders and inquired if they wanted to purchase a bottle of whisky. Patroonman Rousch received a tip, and he gave Herbst a quarter of 1907 and one of 1891, with instructions to make a purchase of whisky if Wilson offered it for sale. After the patronman had walked away, Herbst swore that he paid Wilson the two quarters and received a bottle of whisky from the hands of Wilson. He was positive of this.

Wilson's story of the transaction was that he met two strangers at the station and they agreed to make the trip to Mayfield. Wilson said he was "broke," but one of his generous companions gave him a quarter and said he would sell a bottle of whisky to get the remaining 50 cents for Wilson's fare. Wilson could not give the names of the men, but admitted they were utter strangers. Then Wilson admitted he asked several persons if they wanted to purchase a quart of whisky; but when Herbst made the purchase Herbst was handed the bottle by one of the strangers and then Herbst handed the other two quarters found their way into Wilson's pocket, as the unknown man gave him the 50 cents for his fare.

When found Patroonman Rousch identified the two quarters and said he saw a bulk under Wilson's coat that resembled a bottle, although Wilson swore positively that he did not have any whisky. The case was heard yesterday. Judge Cross announced that he wanted to see authorities on the case and did not announce his decision. The case was marked dismissed on the docket this morning.

Congressman James will deliver an address at the picnic, which will make his second political speech near Paducah in the present campaign.

Camp in Calloway

Murray, Ky., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—To prevent a further outbreak of night riders on the East side of Calloway county, a camp has been established at Brandon's Mill in the Tennessee river hills and fifteen soldiers under command of a sergeant will be kept constantly on duty, while special patrols will be sent out from Murray by Captain Henderson. No depredations have been committed by the night riders in this county since the burning of D. M. Hendricks' barn Saturday night, but the authorities will not be less vigilant notwithstanding the apparent inactivity.

CITES M'KINLEY AND ROOSEVELT MAJORITIES AS

Republican Party Improves Waterways, Digs Canal, Drains
Swamp and Develops Southland.

Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 21.—Taft opened his southern campaign by addressing the largest crowd of representatives ever gathered in the Virginia baseball park. Special trains brought thousands. The speech was largely an appeal to break the "Solid South." Taft declared that every man with his country's interests at heart desires the betterment of the states. The Republican party improved the waterways, is building the Panama canal, redeeming the swamps and taking other steps to develop the south. The success of the mining and iron industries are due to Republican made laws. He urged the voters to break away from traditions binding them to the Democratic party.

Since 1880 his manufacturing has exceeded his agricultural interests. The maintenance of reasonable protective tariff is more important to the South than to any other section.

He congratulated them on the wiping out of the sectional feeling.

Many Southern Democrats believe in the main in Republican doctrines. It is their duty to support them. He attacked Bryan's charge that the people do not rule. He cited the McKinley and Roosevelt majorities, and the maintenance of the old standard and protection as instances that the people do rule.

Taft's Dates.

Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 21.—Judge Taft has accepted an invitation to meet a delegation of the Negro National Baptist association at Cincinnati, September 22. He will visit a reunion of the Grand Army and Spanish Veterans at Athens, O., August 29.

Bryan Is Coming.

Des Moines, Aug. 21.—Bryan arrived after an uneventful trip. He is the guest of Iowa Democrats. He devoted himself during the morning to listening to the morning speech, which opens the campaign tonight. A small crowd awaited his arrival. It is understood Bryan plans to tour Missouri and Kentucky after his Florida speech September 9.

"Kentucky."

"Kentucky" in letters an inch tall was woven in a web by a large spider at the home of G. W. Simmons, 1218 Burnham street. The word is just as plain as if it had been set with type and printed. Mr. Simmons is telling all his friends about the wonderful word of the spider. A number of people visited his home today and read "Kentucky" woven in a spider web.

Successful Evangelist.

The Rev. Roger Pile and son Clyde Lee Pile, evangelists of the Christian church, were here today from Murray, where they have just closed a successful revival at the First Christian church.

They will leave tonight for Wingfield, Kansas, where they will open a meeting Sunday. There were 63 additions to the church at the Murray meeting.

DESIGNS FOR WARSHIPS ARE

Proposals for Construction Probably Will Be Advertised for By September 15.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Designs for the two new battleships authorized at the last session of congress, probably will be completed and approved by September 10. The plans for the vessels are now being completed in the light of the developments of the recent conference of naval officers at Newport. Some suggestions of changes were made at that conference and the changes are now being incorporated in the designs. It is said that the changes are not radical, but in the view of the naval instructors are material to the new ships.

Upon completion of the plans they will be submitted to President Roosevelt for approval, and it is expected that by the middle of September proposals for the construction of one of the ships will be advertised for. The other ship is to be constructed at the Brooklyn navy yard by the government.

SECOND VICTORY

FOR "DR. FIZZ," A. M. LAEVISON & CO.'S POPULAR DRINK.

Case Against T. H. Reed for Selling It On Sunday Dismissed in the Police Court.

A. M. Leavison & company won another signal victory in the police court this morning for their popular soft drink, "Dr. Fizz," when in the case of T. H. Reed, of Ninth and Lloyd streets, who was arrested for selling the beverage on Sunday, the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal. The evidence proved there is no alcohol in the drink, and therefore it is no violation to sell it on Sunday, nor is city license necessary for its sale.

In the case against Thomas Cole a few days ago the same verdict was rendered and the drink declared a non-intoxicant, as in this case. "Dr. Fizz" is one of the best sellers Leavison & company have, and the makers contend, as the evidence in these two cases clearly indicated, and there is no alcohol in the drink, and that it is purely a soft drink.

THREE FOOTBALL TEAMS THIS YEAR

High School, Athletic and the Young Business Men.

Talk of Piskin Meets Already Heard in Halls of Baseball and Good Sport Is Promised.

SOME OF THE LOCAL PLAYERS

Although a majority of the citizens of Paducah are exhausting themselves by tanning and trying to seek a cool spot, there are many young athletes who are planning for football this year. The remembrance of the yells of Thanksgiving day has spurred them on, and probably this year Paducah will have three football teams, something unusual. College and university football squads have begun preliminary workouts, while in a few weeks the Paducah gridiron will be dotted with players in the motokins and then the hospitals and doctors will get busy after a dull summer.

The Paducah Athletic club, composed of young men who admire feats of strength, will have a football team for the first time. The preliminary outline will show players of ability and weight. The roll so far includes: Robert Hower, Leslie Jones, Claude Reeder, Owen Bell, Charles Hower, Henry Ruff, Salem Cope and Clarence Vigh. The young business men have begun talk of organizing a team to combat on the chalked field also, and from the prospect it will be a good one, too. Players who have been mentioned are: Felix St. John, Henry Henneberger, Frank Donovan, Will Henneberger, John Donovan, Guy Martin, Warren Sights and Leo Keller. Other players who have graced the field will don the headgear and jump in the scrimmage.

The High school lads will have a team, although the players will be light. There are several good piskin punchers in the lineup, and under Prof. W. O. Evans, who will have charge of the athletics, an extra strong team is promised this year. The High school boys usually have a light team, but by constant practice such speed has been used that heavier opponents were bewildered, and the victories won from the school boys have been hard fought. With three teams in the field all of the teams in western Kentucky had better be on guard or the scrums will land in Paducah, although it is not a college city.

IDLE ELEMENT

SHOULD BE DRIVEN FROM CITIES OR REFORMED.

Booker T. Washington Comments on Recent Lynchings and Their Cause.

New York, Aug. 21.—The World prints a signed statement from Booker T. Washington made at Baltimore, in which the negro educator comments at length upon recent lynchings. In his statement Washington says:

Within the past sixty days twenty-five negroes have been lynched in different parts of the United States. Of this number only four of the twenty-five were even charged with criminal assault upon women. How long can our Christian civilization stand this? I am making no special plea for the negro, innocent or guilty, but I am calling attention to the danger that threatens our civilization.

For the negro criminal, and especially for the negro loafer, gambler and drunkard, I have nothing but the severest condemnation and no legal punishment is too severe for the brute that assaults a woman.

No doubt the people who engage in lynchings, and excuse them, believe that they will have the effect of striking terror to the guilty. But who shall say whether the persons lynched are guilty. That is what courts are for. Those who have examined into the facts know only too well that in the wild justice of the mob it is frequently the innocent man who is executed.

Mob justice undermines the very foundation upon which our civilization rests, viz., respect for the law and confidence of its security. There are, in my opinion, two remedies: first of all let us unite in a determined effort everywhere to see that the law is enforced, that all people at all times and all places see that the man charged with crime is given a fair trial.

Secondly, let all good citizens unite in an effort to rid the communities, especially the large cities, of the idle, vicious and gambling element. And in this connection it would not be just and would not be frank, unless I stated that the better of the black race could use their influence, especially in the cities, to see that the idle element that lives by its wits without permanent or reliable occupation or place of abode is either reformed or gotten rid of in some manner. In most cases it is this element that furnishes the powder of these explosions.

What some people call love isn't even a good imitation.

The Danger in Dust.
Aside from the well-known effects of vitiated air, the particles of dust which fly in the various manufactures do the greatest damage. John Hancock.

UPON the Declaration of Independence his name may be read without spectacles. It stands out the strongest, boldest, finest signature.

In the most realistic sense John Hancock pledged life and fortune to finance the Revolution in its earlier stages.

He held investments in banks, breweries, distilleries, stores, hotels, and owned a fleet of ships engaged in the rum, wine and oil trade. The seizure of one of them (for evading the revenue laws) precipitated the Boston Massacre. He was strong-hearted, full of enterprise, patriotic and bold of spirit. Over many a foaming glass of Boston Ale and hot punch he often declared, "I glory in publicly avowing my eternal enmity to tyranny."

THREE FOOTBALL TEAMS THIS YEAR

High School, Athletic and the Young Business Men.

Talk of Pigskin Meets Already Heard in Halls of Baseball and Good Sport is Promised.

SOME OF THE LOCAL PLAYERS

Although a majority of the citizens of Paducah are exhausting themselves by farming and trying to seek a cool spot, there are many young athletes who are planning for football this year. The remembrance of the year of Thanksgiving day has spurred them on, and probably this year Paducah will have three football teams, something unusual. College and university football squads have begun preliminary workouts, while in a few weeks the Paducah gridiron will be dotted with players in the motokies and then the hospitals and doctors will get busy after a dull summer.

The Paducah Athletic club, composed of young men who admire feats of strength, will have a football team for the first time. The preliminary outline will show players of ability and weight. The roll so far includes: Robert Hower, Leslie Jones, Claude Reeder, Owen Hill, Charles Bower, Henry Ruff, Salem Cope and Clarence Virgin. The young business men have begun talk of organizing a team to combat on the chalked field also, and from the prospect it will be a good one, too. Players who have been mentioned are: Felix St. John, Henry Henneberger, Frank Donovan, Will Henneberger, John Donovan, Guy Martin, Warren Sights and Leo Keller. Other players who have graced the field will don the headgear and jump in the scrimmage.

The High school lads will have a team, although the players will be tight. There are several good pigskin punchers in the lineup, and under Prof. W. O. Evans, who will have charge of the athletics, an extra strong team is promised this year. The High school boys usually have a tight team, but by constant practice such speed has been used that heavier opponents were bewildered, and the victories won from the school boys have been hard fought. With three teams in the field all of the teams in western Kentucky had better be on guard or the scalp will land in Paducah, although it is not a college city.

IDLE ELEMENT

SHOULD BE DRIVEN FROM CITIES OR REFORMED.

Hooker T. Washington Comments on Recent Lynchings and Their Cause.

New York, Aug. 21.—The World prints a signed statement from Hooker T. Washington made at Baltimore, in which the negro educator comments at length upon recent lynchings. In his statement Washington says:

Within the past sixty days twenty-five negroes have been lynched in different parts of the United States. Of this number only four of the twenty-five were even charged with criminal assault upon women. How long can our Christian civilization stand this? I am making no special plea for the negro, innocent or guilty, but I am calling attention to the danger that threatens our civilization.

For the negro criminal, and especially for the negro loafer, gambler and drunkard, I have nothing but the severest condemnation and no legal punishment is too severe for the brute that assaults a woman.

No doubt the people who engage in lynchings, and excuse them, believe that they will have the effect of striking terror to the guilty. But who shall say whether the persons lynched are guilty. That is what courts are for. Those who have examined into the facts know only too well that in the wild justice of the mob it is frequently the innocent man who is executed.

Mob justice undermines the very foundation upon which our civilization rests, viz., respect for the law and confidence of its security. There are, in my opinion, two remedies. First of all let us unite in a determined effort everywhere to see that the law is enforced, that all people at all times and all places see that the man charged with crime is given a fair trial.

Secondly, let all good citizens unite in an effort to rid the communities, especially the large cities, of the idle, vicious and gambling element. And in this connection it would not be just and would not be frank, unless I stated that the better of the black race could use their influence, especially in the cities, to see that the idle element that lives by its wits without permanent or reliable occupation or place of abode is either reformed or gotten rid of in some manner. In most cases it is this element that furnishes the powder of these explosions.

What some people call love isn't even a good imitation.

SECOND VICTORY

FOR "DR. FIZZ," A. M. LAEVISON & CO.'S POPULAR DRINK.

Case Against T. H. Reed for Selling It On Sunday Dismissed in the Police Court.

A. M. Leavison & company won another signal victory in the police court this morning for their popular soft drink, "Dr. Fizz," when in the case of T. H. Reed, of Ninth and Floyd streets, who was arrested for selling the beverage on Sunday, the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal. The evidence proved there is no alcohol in the drink, and therefore it is no violation to sell it on Sunday, nor is city license necessary for its sale.

In the case against Thomas Cole a few days ago the same verdict was rendered and the drink declared a non-intoxicant, as in this case. "Dr. Fizz" is one of the best sellers Leavison & company have, and the makers contend, as the evidence in these two cases clearly indicated, and there is no alcohol in the drink, and that it is purely a soft drink.

TEN INDICTMENTS AT SPRINGFIELD

Returned by Special Grand Jury Against Mob.

Chicago Has Trouble Among Dock Saloons Over Race Hatred—Police Keep Busy.

NO BONDSMEN FOR SOLDIERS

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—Ten indictments against two alleged mob leaders were returned by the special grand jury. Six are against Alexander Haynor and four against Kate Howard. Haynor is charged with murder, four cases of malicious mischief and one of riot. The charges against the Howard woman are for malicious mischief and are identical with those against Haynor on these accounts.

The woman has been on $1,000 bail but this has been increased to $10,000.

The murder charge against Haynor is based on the alleged participation in the lynching of William Donnelly, 80 years of age, a negro who fell a victim to the mob's fury on Saturday night. Considerable evidence upon which this was based was secured under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel Chipperfield, of the First Cavalry and which today turned over to the state's attorney the result of his investigation. Chipperfield says he secured enough evidence to indict forty or more persons.

Springfield was again tonight by the report that Rella Keys, the 17-year old boy who testified before the special grand jury when that body indicted George Richardson for alleged assault upon Mrs. Mabel Halton, had been shot by friends of the accused negro.

Before the rumor had time to spread far, however, it was learned that the shooting was accidental, the wound having been inflicted by a bullet from a revolver belonging to a companion of the Keys boy. The boy is so seriously injured that he may die.

Trouble at Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—In a fight between white and black dock laborers employees on the Western Transit company's docks, growing out of the antagonism which has developed since the Springfield riot, five men were injured and the police only restored order after a free use of clubs and threats to shoot.

The climax was reached when the whites declared that they would not work unless the negroes quit. This the latter refused to do and a quarrel ensued between Hugh Brady, white and Louis Hawkins, colored. The negro drew a knife and stabbed Brady in the neck and arm, whereupon the fighting became general.

Bricks and clubs were used freely. The fight attracted the attention of white and negro laborers employed a short distance away by the Lehigh Valley Transportation company and they ran to the scene and took sides with the combatants.

Hot calls brought patrol wagons filled with policemen who succeeded in stopping the battle. Hawkins was arrested.

No Bondsmen for Klein.

Kankakee, Ill., Aug. 21.—Negotiations for a bond for $10,000 for the release of Private Joseph H. Klein of the Illinois National Guard charged with the killing of Earl Wilson here last Saturday were unsuccessful and Klein was left under the protection of the military authorities, who brought him to Kankakee.

Arrangements have been made for Klein's surrender to the civil authorities and his immediate release on bond pending the convening of the next term of the Circuit Court, but a satisfactory bondman could not be secured. A further effort will be made tomorrow.

For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs, it has no equal. Coffee in Asia Minor.

Consul Ernest L. Huc of Smyrna says concerning the consumption of coffee in Asia Minor:

"Coffee is the national drink of Turkey. That used in the City of Smyrna comes principally from Brazil. The best quality is the Arabian, but it is so expensive that only the richer classes can afford to buy it. Brazilian coffee is the staple product in this part of the world, and reaches this port chiefly through commission houses in London, Hamburg, Trieste, and Marseilles. Payments are cash against the delivery of the shipping documents. The annual imports amount to about 90,000,000 pounds. Brazilian coffee is sold by retailers at 14 to 20 cents per pound, while the Arabian product often costs more than double this sum."

Many a man's unsteadiness is due to a steady income.

ITALIAN LOVER

TEARS OUT TONGUE OF SWEET-HEART WHO BROKE HER PROMISE.

Meets Horrible Fate—Coward That Whipped Best Dragged Him to Death.

Rome, Aug. 20.—For tearing out his former sweetheart's tongue because she had broken her promise to remain faithful while he saved enough to support her, a traveling dentist named Francesco Vergani has been dragged to death by a horse to which he was tied by the bystanders who witnessed his vengeance.

Vergani, when a youth of nineteen, fell in love several years ago with Eloise Ferrari, a girl a year his junior, and the daughter of a prosperous farmer of Ravio Province. The girl liked him, but her parents objected that he was too young and poor to wed. Hoping to make a fortune in America, the young man took passage for New York after making his sweetheart promise to accept no husband until he returned to claim her.

The two took their vows of faithfulness in the village church, repeating together as they couched, "May I be stricken dumb if I violate the oath I have taken."

Fortune was slower in coming to him in America than Vergani had hoped, and it was eight years before he considered himself able to support the woman of his choice in the fashion in which he thought she was entitled.

Just as he was preparing to return home, however, he learned, a month ago in Boston, that she had married a well-to-do miller in her native village.

His love turned to hatred, Vergani hastened at once to Italy, bought one of the stage coaches from which itinerant dentists practiced in this country and drove to Monello, a village near Padua, where he arrived during fair time, gathered a crowd and performed a number of small operations, meanwhile questioning his patrons regarding his former fiancée.

As he expected it was not long before she and her husband appeared in the group about his coach. Himself unrecognizable in the long beard which he wore, he beckoned to the woman, who encouraged by her husband, agreed to a trial of a powder with which he had been polishing the teeth of several of the visitors.

Catching up the forceps as she opened her lips, he tore out a large part of her tongue, while the crowd looked on, frozen with horror. Then, as the agonized husband dashed forward and caught his fainting wife in his arms, a rush was made for the coach. The crowd's first instinct was mainly to tear him to pieces. As they tore him from the coach, however, someone shouted: "Tie him to his horse and let it drag him."

The suggestion met with instant approval. One of the horses was unfettered from the coach, Vergani was bound to its tail, and the animal, already frightened and rearing, was lashed to a gallop. The victim of the mob's vengeance was dragged nearly two miles before the runaway animal was stopped. Vergani was then almost beyond recognition. The object of his vengeance probably will not recover.

TEN INDICTMENTS AT SPRINGFIELD

Returned by Special Grand Jury Against Mob.

Chicago Has Trouble Among Dock Sailors Over Race hatred—Police Kept Busy.

NO BONDSMEN FOR SOLDIERS

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—Ten indictments against two alleged mob leaders were returned by the special grand jury. Six are against Abraham Raynor and four against Kate Howard. Raynor is charged with murder, four cases of malicious mischief and one of rape. The charges against the Howard woman are for malicious mischief and are identical with those against Raynor on these accounts.

The woman has been on $1,000 bail but this has been increased to $10,000.

The murder charge against Raynor is based on the alleged participation in the lynching of William Donaldson, 80 years of age, a negro who fell a victim to the mob's fury on Saturday night. Considerable evidence upon which this was based was secured under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel Chipmunk of the First Cavalry and which today turned over to the state's attorney for use of its investigators.

Springfield was aflame tonight by the report that Italia Keys, the 17 year old boy who testified before the special grand jury when that body indicted George Richardson for alleged assault upon Mrs. Mabel Italian, had been shot by friends of the accused negro.

Before the rumor had time to spread far, however, it was learned that the shooting was accidental, the wound having been inflicted by a bullet from a revolver belonging to a companion of the Keys boy. The boy is so seriously injured that he may die.

Trouble at Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—In a fight between white and black dock laborers employees on the Western Transit company's docks, growing out of the antagonism which has developed since the Springfield riot, five men were injured and the police only restored order after a free use of clubs and threats to shoot.

The climax was reached when the whites declared that they would not work unless the negroes quit. This the latter refused to do and a quarrel ensued between Hugh Brady, white and Louis Hawkins, colored. The negro drew a knife and stabbed Brady in the neck and arm, whereupon the fighting became general.

Bricks and clubs were used freely. The fight attracted the attention of white and negro laborers employed a short distance away by the Lehigh Valley Transportation company and they ran to the scene and took sides with the combatants.

Hot calls brought patrol wagons filled with policemen who succeeded in stopping the battle. Hawkins was arrested.

No Bondsmen for Klein.

Kankakee, Ill., Aug. 21.—Negotiations for a bond for $10,000 for the release of Private Joseph B. Klein of the Illinois National Guard charged with the killing of Earl Wilson here last Saturday were unsuccessful and Klein was left under the protection of the military authorities, who brought him to Kankakee.

Arrangements have been made for Klein's surrender to the civil authorities and his immediate release on bond pending the convening of the next term of the Circuit Court, but a satisfactory bondman could not be secured. A further effort will be made tomorrow.

Think It Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would not more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs, it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Coffee in Asia Minor.

Consul Ernest L. Harris of Smyrna says concerning the consumption of coffee in Asia Minor:

"Coffee is the national drink of Turkey. That used in the City of Smyrna comes principally from Brazil. The best quality is the Arabian, but it is so expensive that only the richer classes can afford to buy it. Brazilian coffee is the staple product in this part of the world, and reaches this port chiefly through commission houses in London, Hamburg, Trieste, and Marseilles. Payments are cash against the delivery of the shipping documents. The annual imports amount to about 90,000,000 pounds. Brazilian coffee is sold by retailers at 10 to 20 cents per pound, while the Arabian product often costs more than double this sum."

Many a man's unsteadiness is due to a steady income.

ITALIAN LOVER

TEARS OUT TONGUE OF SWEET-HEART WHO BROKE HER PROMISE.

Meets Horrible Fate—Crowd that Will Hissed Her Dragged Him to Death.

Rome, Aug. 20.—For tearing out his former sweetheart's tongue because she had broken her promise to remain faithful while he saved enough to support her, a traveling dentist named Francesco Vergani has been dragged to death by a mob to which he was tied by the bystanders who witnessed his vengeance.

Vergani, when a youth of nineteen, fell in love several years ago with Eloise Ferrari, a girl a year his junior, and the daughter of a prosperous farmer of Ravenna Province. The girl liked him, but her parent objected that he was too young and poor to wed. Hoping to make a fortune in America, the young man took passage for New York after making his sweetheart promise to accept no husband until he returned to claim her.

The two took their vows of faithfulness in the village church, repeating together as they conjoined, "May I be stricken dumb if I violate the oath I have taken."

Fortune was slower in coming to him in America than Vergani had hoped, and it was eight years before he considered himself able to support the woman of his choice in the fashion in which he thought she was entitled.

Just as he was preparing to return home, however, he learned, a month ago in Boston, that she had married a well-to-do miller in her native village.

His love turned to hatred, Vergani hastened at once to Italy, bought one of the stage coaches from which itinerant dentists practice in this country and drove to Monzello, a village near Padua, where he arrived during fair time, gathered a crowd and performed a number of small operations, meanwhile questioning his patrons regarding his former fiancée.

As he expected it was not long before she and her husband appeared in the group about his coach. Himself unrecognizable in the long beard in which he wore, he beckoned to the woman, who encouraged by her husband, agreed to a trial of a powder with which he had been pulling the teeth of several of the visitors.

Clutching up the forceps as she opened her lips, he tore out a large part of her tongue, while the crowd looked on, frozen with horror. Then, as the agonized husband dashed forward and caught his fainting wife in his arms, a rush was made for the coach. The crowd's first instinct was plainly to tear him to pieces. As they tore him from the coach, however, someone shouted: "The him to his horse and let it drag him."

The suggestion met with instant approval. One of the horses was unfettered from the coach, Vergani was bound to its tail, and the animal, already frightened and rearing, was lashed to a gallop. The victim of the mob's vengeance was dragged nearly two miles before the runaway animal was stopped. Vergani was then almost beyond recognition. The object of his vengeance probably will not recover.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

County Court Clerk.
 The Sun is authorized to announce Hiram Smedley a candidate for reelection to the office of Clerk of the McCracken County Court subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Daily Thought.
 "He who shall pass judgment on the records of our life is the same that formed us in frailty."—R. L.
 Stevenson.

A nation awaits Mr. Bryan's explanation of his plank on tariff reform and federal injunctions.

A young man in Pennsylvania ran a foot race with his prospective father-in-law, the parental consent depending on the result of the race.
 Young men have run foot races before with their fathers-in-law with the young ladies as the prizes, but they always have carried their prizes
 with them to the minister's house as the goal.

"Graves county again comes to the front with another murder, making three within a month in the same locality. If she keeps up this record for a while, she will soon eclipse bloody Breathitt in this line. Graves county needs few hangmen and life sentences to the penitentiary. She also needs to fine and imprison every fellow caught with a pistol in his pocket."—Evansville Tribune-Democrat.
 There you go again! Hain't James Lamon a strike on his hands, and a wave of prosperity to combat, without defending Graves county's weakness? Anyway, he hasn't forgotten that Birmingham raid, yet.

POLITICS.

It is with pleasure we learn from a local contemporary that the party
 of "Finger" Conners, Dick Croker,
 "Boss" Murphy, "Hinky Dink" Kenna,
 "Bath House John," Roger Sullivan,
 "Pennsylvania" Gaffey, "Faro King"
 Tom Taggart, of French Lick, the
 "Louisville Gang" and the "Muffs" Hall Convention, never was guilty of corruption in elections. How thoughtless of the court of appeals to set aside the Louisville election on the ground of fraud; how reckless the omission of McCreary's followers that Beckham won the nomination by fraud, and of Beckham's followers in Paducah and elsewhere that Mc-Creary's spent thousands of dollars corrupting voters in the cities. Can we forget how Campbell won the nomination in Missouri and Patterson in Tennessee? Do we ignore the rebuke administered to some politicians in Paducah last fall?

Ah, no, Little Sewer Snake, The Sun's reference to the corrupt use of money in elections was not a confession, but an observation. We can understand how you, with your tilt in the Democratic line and your eye on the Republican parties that float
 by, imagine all the small comes from the place, where your vision sees. Lift your head and get a whiff of pure moral ozone, and then acknowledge that politics is politics.
 The Sun would encourage independent citizenship. The Sun believes that the people rule and always have ruled. The Sun believes that national elections have not yet been corrupted,

 but as sure as party organs conceal facts and attempt to array class against class, for the convenient handling of votes in blocks, the hoodie element eventually will become the balance of power. If we thought the great mass of American voters had been corrupted and national elections bought, we should despair; but while there has been gross corruption in municipal, and often in state, elections, and party organizations have sometimes been controlled in ways that are dark and devious, national elections of late years have been swung by the volume of votes in the agricultural states and the people have ruled.

Just to be mean, we call the attention of our local contemporary to the fact that most of the cities are Democratic.

JUDGE COOK NO NIGHT RIDER.
 "Judge Cook may not be a night rider, but the prosecution thinks that his ruling in the Ellis case prevented a conviction and exceptions have been entered for the court of appeals to pass on. There are other ways to kill a dog than by choking him to death
 with butter."—Kentucky State Journal.

WHY COMPROMISE?

The Hopkinsville Kentuckian asserts that there is much talk in the Christian capital about a proposition to be made by night riders, through attorneys, looking to an agreement with the officers of the law. The terms which rumor says will be offered are that there shall be no more lawlessness. If the authorities will agree not to push prosecutions
 for past violations of the law.
 It is, of course, monstrous that anyone should consider it possible for such a compromise to be made. The Kentuckian, quite naturally, expresses itself heartily as being in opposition to any compromise with outlaws further than the usual legal courtesies
 shown to men who turn state's evidence.

The fact is that the promoters of night riding are fearing for their skins. They have been playing with fire—in a literal and figurative sense for some time. They are now very much alarmed indeed lest they be burned. There is a very general feeling among them that the worm is about to turn. They would doubtless like to get out of their predicament.
 The time is ripe, not for compromise with the frightened miscreants who have prodded the hoodlum element on to deeds of violence for the achievement of personal ends, but for a prosecution of the guilty vigorous enough and comprehensive enough to include the men behind the torch.—
 Courier-Journal.

THE CITY OF IT.

Governor Wilson has made good his offer of immunity to any one who kills a night rider if after investigation he finds that he acted in the necessary defense of his person or property, by granting Waker Duncan,
 who killed Newton Hazlett in Shelby county, a full and free pardon. The action is notice to the night rider that he can shoot down like a dog when he is pursuing that line of endeavor
 and no one will be punished for it.
 It is a drastic and desperate remedy,
 but Governor Wilson is sworn to remove law and order and he intends to do so at all hazards. The occasion for such annual action is more to be regretted than the action itself. Let there be a return to law and reason and there will be no opportunity again offered for Governor Wilson to carry his determination to pardon into further effect.—Kentucky State Journal.

 tinental style. Breakfast—half hot

REPARTEE IN MCK CONGRESS.

Quick Answer Made to Question in a Debate.

In the mock congress conducted by the charges of a certain fresh air movement the youthful leader of the Republican side was making a fierce attack upon the Democratic leader.
 Why had he done this? Why had he done that? Why hadn't he done the other?

"There he sits," thundered the orator—"mute, silent and dumb."

"Yes," remarked another youngster amid the silence that followed this crushing arraignment, "un' he ain't sayin' a word!"

Which brought down the house.

The Dollar Mark

The origin of the dollar mark is one of the curios of our financial history.

In the early days of the nation
 there was utter confusion in the circulating medium. Several of the colonies had authorized coins of different denominations, and, besides these,
 there were English, pence, shillings,
 crowns and half crowns. French coins, both from Europe and Canada,
 Spanish coins of half a dozen denominations, especially real and doubloons,
 Mexican coins, in Pennsylvania
 Dutch and German pieces, and along the coast Portuguese and even Italian money was often seen, brought by seamen.

The United States Mint was established in 1791, and the United States coinage became, of course, the legal tender. The mixed coinage, however, was not at once displaced, but continued in local use, so that it became necessary for merchants in keeping accounts to designate that a bill was to be paid in United States currency, or, if in miscellaneous coins, these were received at a discount. So, before the sum total of the bills the merchant was accustomed to write the letters "U. S.," signifying United States money. In the hurry of writing, the "S" was often written over the "U"; then the connecting line at the bottom early dropped off,
 and to the present day most people unconsciously commemorate the original practice of making two down
 strokes first, then adding the "S."

Chapter IX

"THIS IS AMERICA, MR. ARMITAGE."

PRING, planting green
 and gold banners on old Virginia battlefields, crossed the Potomac and occupied Washington.

Shirley Claiborne
 called for her horse and rode forth to greet the conqueror. The afternoon was keen and sunny, and she had turned impatiently from a row to which she was committed to seek the open.

The call of the outdoor gods sang in her blood. Buffaloes and crowses littled off yellow flames and ruddy torches from every doorway. She had pinned a spray of arbutus to the lapel of her tan riding coat. It spoke to her of the blue horizons of the Virginia hills.

The young birds in the maples hovered
 like a mist in the treetops. "Fowering
 over all, the incomparable gray obelisk climbed to the blue arch and brought it nearer earth. Washington, the center of man's hope, is also in spring the capital of the land of heart's desire.

With a groom trailing after her, Shirley rode toward Rock creek—that rippling, murmuring, slinging tide of water that laughs day and night at the margin of the beautiful city, as though politics and statesmanship were the hugest joke in the world. The dog on the Austro-Hungarian embassy hung at half mast and symbols of mourning fluttered from the entire front of the house. Shirley lifted her eyes bravely as she passed. Her thoughts flew at once to the scene at the house of the secretary of state a week before, when Baron von Marhof had learned of the death of his sovereign, and by association she thought, too, of Armitage and of his look and voice as he said:

"Long live the emperor and king!
 God save Austria!"

Emperors and kings? They were as impossible today as a snowstorm. The grave ambassadors as they appeared at great Washington functions, wearing their decorations, always struck her as being particularly displeased. It just now occurred to her that they were all linked to the crown and rep-ter, but she dismissed the whole matter and bowed to two dark ladies in a passing victoria with the quick little nod and bright smile that were the same for these titled members of the Spanish ambassador's household as for the young daughters of a western senator, who demurely waved their hands to her from a doorway.

Armitage came again to her mind.
 He had called at the Claiborne house twice since the secretary's fall, and she had been surprised to find how fully she accepted him as an American now that he was on her own soil. He derived, too, a certain stability from the fact that the Sandersons knew him;
 he was, indeed, an entirely different person when the Montana senator distinctly connected him with an American landscape. She had kept her own counsel touching the scene on the dark deck of the King Edward, but it was not a thing lightly to be forgotten. She was half angry with herself this morning afternoon to find how persistently Armitage came into her thoughts and how the knife thrust on the steamer deck kept recurring in her mind and quickening her sympathy for a man of whom she knew so little, and she touched her horse impatiently with the whip and rode into the park at a gallop, that tossed the groom to attention.

At a bend of the road Chauvenet and Frauzel, the attaché, swung into view,
 mounted, and as they met Chauvenet turned his horse and rode beside her.
 "Ah, these American girls! This spring is it not good to be alive, Miss Claiborne?"

"It is all of that," she replied. It seemed to her that the day had not needed Chauvenet's praise.

"I had hoped to see you later at the Willoughby ten," he continued.

"No time for me on a day like this!"
 The thought of being indoors was tragic.
 She wished that he would leave her,
 for she had hidden out into the spring sunshine to be alone. He somehow did not appear to advantage in his riding coat—his belongings were too perfect. She had really enjoyed his talk when they had met here and there abroad, but she was in no mood for him now, and she wondered what he had lost by the transfer to America.
 He ran on airily in French, speaking of the rush of great and small social affairs that marked the end of the season.

"Poor Frauzel is indeed sick. He is taking the death of Johnnie Willichin quite hard. But here in America the death of an emperor seems less important. A king or a peasant, what does it matter?"

"Better ask the robin in yonder linding chestnut tree, monsieur. This is not an hour for hard questions!"

"Ah, you are very cruel! You drive me back to poor, melancholy Frauzel,
 who is indeed a funeral in himself!"

"That is very sad, monsieur," and she smiled at him with mischief in her eyes. "My heart goes out to any one who is left to mourn—alone."

He gathered his reins and drew up his horse, lifting his hat with a perfect gesture.

"There are sadder blows than losing

one's sovereign, mademoiselle!" and he shook his head mournfully and rode
 back to find his friend.

She sought now her favorite bridle path, and her heart was light with the sweetness and peace of the spring as she heard the rush and splash of the creek, saw the flash of wings and felt the mystery of awakened life throbbing about her. The heart of a girl in spring is the home of dreams,
 and Shirley's heart overflowed with them until her pulse thrilled and sang
 in quickening cadence.

The groom moved at the sudden changes of gait, the galleys that fell abruptly to a walk with the alternations of mood in the girl's heart, the paces that marked a moment of meditation as she watched some green curving bank or a plume of the wind
 little creek that sent a glory of spray whitely into the sunlight. It grew late,
 and the shadows of waning afternoon crept through the park. The crowd had hurried home to escape the chill of the spring dusk, but she lingered on,
 reluctant to leave, and presently left her horse with the groom that she might walk alone beside the creek in a place that was beautifully wild. About

one's sovereign, mademoiselle!" and he
 shook his head mournfully and rode
 back to find his friend.

"There are sadder blows than losing
 one's sovereign."

WILD MAN OF BORNEO FATAALLY
HUTES HIS KEEPER.
 Strange Creature Becomes Enraged
 When Lightning Strikes Tent
 Slays His Teeth Into Negro.

McDonald, Pa.—Leppo, the wild
 man with the Metropolitan show here, became enraged last evening when lightning struck the big tent and in his fury attacked John Dudley, a negro, and tore him so badly that he will die.

Leppo fastened his teeth
 in the neck of Dudley and held on until his jaws were pried apart with an iron lever. Once separated from his victim Leppo ran wildly about the tent in which several hundreds had taken shelter from the storm, and he hurt many before being felled with a fence stake and tied with chains.

Leppo had just finished a lunch of rattlesnakes when the bolt hit the tent. Dudley who had been assisting Leppo, was thrown to the floor and then the wild man attacked him.

"How long does your wife expect to remain away?"

"Well, she took six trucks with her, so I suppose she will be gone
 about a month and a half."—Chicago

Fulton Defeats Jackson.

Fulton, Ky., Aug. 21.—In a game abounding with excitement, Fulton won from Jackson, Tenn., by a score of 3 to 2. In the eighth the score stood 2 to 2, and the keenest kind of rooting was in force. In the ninth round both teams were confident. Anderson, Jackson's star box artist, let himself reach third sack. Two strike-outs followed. Maybrey was next up and he struck out, but the catcher dropped the sphere, and threw to Murray on first sack. Murray failed to touch the sack, the umpire ruled, and Maybrey was safe. Murray failed to hurl the ball to home in time and Blugold was safe, and the game was tagged by Fulton. Stevens for Fulton allowed only four hits and had eight strikeouts. George Block, a catcher from Paducah, played third sack for Fulton in creditable style.
The batteries were: Fulton—Stevens and Maybrey; Jackson—Anderson and Johnson.

CANTALOUPE

TAKEN SUDEN AND SURPRISING JUMP IN PRICE.
First Crop Half a Failure But Another Is Coming In This County.

Cantaloupes have taken a sudden jump in price, and for the next few weeks the fruit will grace the table of only the rich man. McCracken county had a short crop this year, and as the supply has been exhausted, the few fortunate growers did not hesitate to boost the price from 25 and 30 a dozen to 60 cents and $1 a dozen.

Farmers say that the cantaloupes were damaged by the dry spell in the early summer, and then last month the heavy rains caused the cantaloupes to rot on the vines before they had ripened. Only about a half a crop was raised, and this was sold last week at prices ranging from 25 to 40 cents a dozen. This week few marketers have cantaloupes, and the purchaser finds that he has to dig down in his leather purse for 75 or $1 when he wants a dozen of cantaloupes. Retail may come in two weeks, as after the dry spell many farmers planted a second crop, and when this is ready for market a decline in prices may be had.

TAFT TO COMPARE PARTY WORK
Trust Records of Republicans and Democrats Theme of Speech.

Hot Springs, W. Va., Aug. 21.—Judge Taft put the finishing touches on his speech to the Virginia Republicans after devoting practically the whole day to the work. The speech, according to a statement made regarding it by Mr. Vorys, is not a reply to Mr. Bryan's notification utterances, but rather an exposition of the records of the Republican and Democratic parties in their practical work toward control of trust and monopoly abuses.

From this comparison, said Mr. Vorys, Mr. Taft draws the conclusion that southern Republicans have a very effective slogan with which to go after the independent Democratic vote of the month. The speech, which contains approximately 5,000 words, will be delivered Friday afternoon to several train loads of excursionists from all parts of the state.

James H. Garfield, secretary of the Interior, spent the day here and took occasion to acquaint Mr. Taft with the situation as he found it on the Pacific coast in northwestern states.

How the artists are enthusing For Messrs. Kern and Sherman With whiskers so amusing. Oh, hear the pencils scratching as The v. p. guys are sketched; With nauton chops, Or tousled mops Their hirsute glory stretched. Their purple strainers, ambrosial brush, Or glad Aeolian harps, Or lambrequins, Or lilac china, Are pie for artist sharps.

Rah! Rah! Rah! Cartoonists are enthusing For Messrs. Kern and Sherman With whiskers so amusing!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED

Maxon Mills Selected by Central Labor Union.

Farmer's Union Will Join and Excursion Will Be Run Out From St. Louis.

NAMES OF THE COMMITTEEMEN.

Labor Day, September 7, will be the biggest event for the labor unions since the celebrations have been held by the Paducah workmen. This year an entirely new plan has been adopted as well as a new location as last night the Central Labor union decided to hold the celebration at Maxon Mills, which is eight miles from Paducah. Aside from the opportunity of the use of private carriages there will be an excellent train schedule to and from the grounds. To assist the Paducah union men in celebrating an excursion of 15 coaches will be run from St. Louis.

The Central Labor union in conjunction with the Farmers' union has had the arrangement of the plans under consideration for sometime. The celebration will be held in Fuller's Grove, which is nearly 200 yards from the railroad track, and there are many acres of shade so that the heat will not be any disadvantage. There will be dancing, and all kinds of amusements provided and the managers will have plenty of free ice water on the grounds.

In the morning the union men will meet and march in a line to the train, which will leave at 9:30 o'clock for the barbecue. Every hour, if arrangements are completed, there will be a train for the grounds, and the railroad company has agreed to furnish sufficient accommodations for a large crowd. It will also be a big day for the farmers, and McCracken county will contribute liberally. Paducah made a good impression on the farmers at the state convention, and they have expressed themselves that a large crowd will be at the celebration. The excursion from St. Louis will mean that over a thousand out of the city visitors will be on hand.

Extensive preparations will be made for the entertainment and dinner for the visitors. Forty sheep and hogs will be barbecued by experts, and no one will go hungry. Intoxicating liquors will not be sold on the ground, and there will be ample police protection.

Goddess of Labor.
Another feature of Labor Day will be the election of the Goddess of Labor. Miss Helen Hannan will retire this year, and her successor will be elected by a popular vote of the union men. The contest will be started immediately and several unions have considered candidates. The Farmers' union will have a candidate out, and it will be nip and tuck as to who will be the winner. The Goddess of Labor will have choice of a gold watch, bracelet or locket, the prize to cost $25.

Letters have been written, asking prominent labor officials to speak, but replies have not been received. County Attorney Alben Barkley, and Attorney J. S. Ross have been secured but there will be others. The committee tried to get Ollie James, but he will speak at Mayfield Labor Day.

The members of the Central Labor union that had charge of the arrangements were: George Hannan, president of the Central Labor union; A. G. Cowen, of the carpenters' union; Elbridge Turner, of the brewery workers' union; E. Dixon, of the tool makers' helpers' union; D. B. Hotchkiss, of the leather workers' union; C. R. Conpton, of the ship carpenters; E. H. Carter, of the machinists' union; M. H. Danaher, of the typographical union; F. H. Gray, of the bartenders' union; Gilbert Young, of the cigar makers' union; H. E. Johnson, of the tinners' union; A. T. Darden, of the farmers' union; John McGarrigal, of the holler makers' union; A. C. Carter, of the painters and decorators' union; Wesley Swartz, of the ship caulkers' union.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS CONVENTION HELD

Officers Selected For Ensuing Year by Association.

More Than Two Hundred Delegates Attend the Session at Highland Church, Near Lone Oak.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

One of the most successful conventions of the McCracken County Sunday School association was held yesterday with Highland church, near Lone Oak. Over 200 delegates were in attendance and the reports from the different Sunday schools represented showed splendid progress of the work in the county.

Prof. E. A. Fox, of the state association, was present and made several interesting addresses. The collection amounted to over $40, the next will be for state Sunday school work.

One of the most enjoyable features of the meeting was an old-fashioned basket dinner spread on the church grounds at noon. The question of selecting a place for the next annual meeting was left with the executive committee. The following resolutions were adopted before adjourning:

"We, the undersigned committee on future work and resolutions, submit the following report:

"First--To continue as McCracken county now holds the proud position of a banner county in Sunday school work, and it is very desirable that we maintain that position and take no backward step, we especially recommend that in the future we keep up and in every way advance the work and standard of Sunday school organization.

"Second--We recommend that special attention be given to teacher training.

"Third--We recommend that on a teacher give all their time and labor possible to the preparation of each and every lesson.

"Fourth--We recommend and urge the organization of adult bible classes to every school and that every effort be made to make such classes a permanent and efficient part of the Sunday school work.

"Fifth--We further recommend the following resolution: Be it resolved, that the thanks of this convention are due and hereby rendered to the Highland church and community for their hospitality in opening their church home to this convention, their splendid dinner and their acts of kindness.

"Respectfully submitted,
"WILLIAM MARBLE,
"S. B. MOORE,
"OLLIE ALLEN."

In order to eliminate expense of sending delegates to the state convention at Louisville it was suggested at the meeting that several churches send one delegate, and in this way a heavy expense could be avoided. It was discussed that all of the churches of one denomination could unite and send one delegate, which would be a satisfactory plan.

The Rev. E. A. Fox, of the State Sunday School association, went to Highland today to attend a small convention, but will return to Paducah this evening, and return to Louisville tonight at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. William E. Bourquin has been extended an invitation to address the McCracken County Sunday school convention, which will be held at Clinton September 26. The Rev. Bourquin has accepted the invitation, but has not announced his subject.

WORLD'S CONFERENCE

MISSIONARY MOVEMENT INDORSED BY PROMINENT MEN

President Roosevelt Writes Letter In Which He Approves Plan for Convention.

New York, Aug. 21--A foreign missionary conference composed of missionaries and missionary workers from all parts of the world, will be held in Edinburgh, Scotland, in June, 1910. The forthcoming conference, which is the third of its kind, has received the endorsement of President Roosevelt, William H. Taft, James Bryce, the British Ambassador to the United States, and others. Dr. Silas Melroe, of New York, and Dr. J. L. Barton, of Boston, are at present in Europe engaged in arranging for general committees to consider various branches of church work.

President Roosevelt in his letter of endorsement sent to the Rev. Arthur J. Brown, Dr. J. L. Barton, John R. Mott and Dr. Silas Melroe, says in part:

It seems to me that this effort to bring together missionaries from all parts of the world, and from every body of Christians, represents a movement of deep importance and singular impressiveness. The purpose of the conference is first to concentrate the attention of the entire Christian world upon the vast mass of human beings who have never yet heard the Gospel; and second, to permit free consultation on the best methods of obeying the command to preach the Gospel to all the world. Surely, we have a right to expect that the capacity for forethought and co-operation, that is the capacity to look ahead, to unite to accomplish objects seen from afar--one of those high powers peculiar to civilization--shall be exhibited to a peculiar degree among those who preach the common salvation, which comes through the word of the Lord in past history. It has ever been true, that all enterprises, whether of governments or of private individuals, whether of scholars or of men of action, have needed the awakening and controlling power of that high and self-sacrificing morality which accompanies the Christian religion, and nowadays, it is needed more than ever, because of the marvelous ways in which both the good and bad in civilized Nations are being carried to the remotest parts of the earth. The forces of evil are more mighty than ever before, but so are the forces of good. It is an age of combination and if we are to accomplish anything of value, we must all strive together for a common end. If your committee can lay the foundations broad enough and deep enough, to induce representatives of all Christian bodies to take part in this great annual conference in Edinburgh, far-reaching good cannot fail to result.

A. S. of E. Tobacco Money Being Paid Out.

The first payment of A. S. of E. money on the Birmingham and Goldensville pool is now being made and shows a very satisfactory business for the farmers who were in this pool. The total amount of money paid to the members of this pool is near $50,000. The average price per 100 pounds as delivered in stripping order by the farmers, was $9 net. The price after reducing way, for fuel, 10c to 15c; for labor, $8.50. This is a fine showing and should satisfy everybody interested. More money was advanced to the farmers when they delivered their tobacco than they could sell for before they organized, and this last payment of about $20,000 came a great like a gift. Office for County Crop.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 21--The report which was started last week to the effect that the Imperial Tobacco company had made a tentative offer for the entire growing crop of tobacco now being raised in Christian county, has been made almost positive by statements from authoritative sources.

According to later details, the Imperial company has made an offer of about $9 per hundred pounds for the entire crop grown in this county, provided it would be delivered to them loose. So far it is not known whether the offer extends to other counties or not, but it is supposed that it does, as the twelve to fifteen million pounds of tobacco produced in this county would only be a beginning for an annual purchase by the Imperial.

It is not yet known how much an offer will be received by the Planters' Protective association, which controls practically the entire crop now on the hill. Therefore the association has steadfastly refused to consider the sale of tobacco in any other form than prized in hogheads under the order laid down. The Imperial has not as steadfastly refused to buy the dried tobacco, as they claim it must be prized in a certain manner in order to suit the English trade, and when it is prized under any other conditions, it is ruined so far as they are concerned. Last year the Imperial bought the entire crop in Cumberland, Patton, Hopkins, Webster and Henderson counties, amounting to about 17,000,000 pounds, controlled in the Stenning district association, at a price of $8 per hundred. The tobacco produced in this district is regarded as being worth from $1 to $2 more than that raised in the Stenning district.

The importance of the offer coming just at this time cannot be overestimated. The Planters' Protective association now has on hand about 25,000 hogheads of last year's crop, and prices are decreasing each week. The sale of the growing crop by the Stenning district association off hand would make the 1907 crop more sought after, as the balance of the crop would have to supply their needs from it.

Louisville, Aug. 21. The Ninth-street warehouse sold 4 hogheads of dark at $5.00 a 100.

The bank warehouse sold 41 hogheads of dark at $5.75 a 100.

The Planters' warehouse sold 12 hogheads of light at $12.50 a 100, 16.75, and 1 hoghead of dark at $7.20.

The Farmers' warehouse sold 21 hogheads of light at $12.75 a 100, 19.75 and 1 hoghead of dark at $9.40.

The People's warehouse sold 19 hogheads of light at $13.25 a 100, 21.00, and 3 hogheads of dark at $6.10 a 100.
